

BALI ARTS CAPITAL

Discover Balinese and Indonesian classical art

FULL DAY, 6 - 8 HOURS

We invite you to embark on an artistic journey to discover Balinese and Indonesian classical art as well as experience the modern art scene with visits to museums, galleries and the local market.

Spend today discovering the many charms of Ubud, the cultural and artistic heart of Bali as there is a great variety of museums, local markets and palaces you will experience.

The journey begins at 08.00hrs from Conrad Bali heading towards Blanco Renaissance Museum which provides you with a closer look to an extensive collection of paintings, and it continues with a visit to ARMA Museum for its collection of Balinese and Indonesian paintings which provides a great overview of the Island's rich artistic traditions.

A set menu lunch will be served by the Tjampuhan River, whose charming design brings you closer to being one with nature.

After lunch the journey continues with a visit to Bali's best art galleries which showcase a great variety of modern and traditional Balinese arts.

The journey will be completed by a visit to Tanah Lot which houses a collection of modern paintings, Tiliem Gallery for its fine wood carving selection and the Rudana Museum which specialized in fine art. Our artistic expedition will come to an end after a visit to local markets in Ubud.
